Is there any way to be about the goodness that is God
Without faith in something greater than myself
All the bitterness and shame we are prone to in this game of life
On our own Can be a crazy passtime keeping us from joy, i just want the joy, Don't you want the joy, don't you want to feel the joy

REFRAIN:

Give me the eyes to see, give me the heart to love
Give me the peace to be a friend
Give me the hope to cheer others that live in fear
Give me the eyes to see you God,
